I don't need to see it. Thanks for making sure you had their consent.

Erin,

We have written concurrence from AgLogic that they agree and understand the technical will be cancelled if they do not follow all the terms and conditions, including removal of orange and grapefruit, as previously agreed upon.

Please let us know if you would like to see their response.

Regards,

Shanta

I reviewed the tech first, so look at that first since some of the edits are universal and I refer to them in the others. I'm chatting with Michele at 1 on that other question.
